

Act I

Theme: You are more than enough

Fear: To be left behind

Desire: To be loved

Misbelief: I'm not good enough

Act I

The hook: Getting 2 mistakes in his exams and calling himself a piece of trash that couldn't do anything right, and compared himself to his brother

The set-up: Remoral lost a friend once, Moonlight, and has ever since doubted his abilities to be the best. And held to him so tight, and never moved on

The inciting incident: Hearing about Alex's condition, and him talking to a therapist,

Build-up: Remoral grew more anxious about Alex and continues to observe him, and avoids trouble as much as possible. (And David noticed much and decided to interact with Remoral)

1st plot point: Connecting with David, despite Alex and him being enemies, but maybe, he can change their rivalry from a destructive one into a constructive rivalry, additionally he's a friend of Moonlight, and can relate to him

1st pinch point: Upon becoming friends with David, and Kinaki arriving, Alex has been acting weird, and Remoral began having dreams, the same dream every single night. Hence after one night, he began hearing voices who doubted his every action. Kinaki got suspicious of Remoral and stayed close to him

Act 2

Pre-midpoint reactionary hero: With the trip coming around a month now, Remoral began to construct a plan for Alex's condition. Talking to the therapist about what to do. With taking care of Kinaki as well, to make Bryan and Alex less worried for the little guy

Game-changing midpoint: That alternate identity of Alex found out about Remoral's friendship with David when they were just hanging out in a cafe.

Post-midpoint actionary hero: He ditched his old plan and made a new one while ending his friendship with David after Alex saw. (Saying to himself that he was dumb for doing that and that he should know better)

2nd pinch point: The voice got even stronger that it affected his actions, Kinaki suspicion got stronger and was now worried, (That worry is his programming)

Act 3

Supposed Victory: Remoral carried on with the plan, and decided to give Alex the BEST gift he can see, Remoral gave it, and Alex expression was in awe at first but-

Disaster: He declined it quite gently, Remoral never knew it WAS Aquarius, David overheard and knew what was going on, but before he could interfere Remoral already ran away.

Dark moment: Days and nights, the voices were too much to handle, he didn't feel like getting out of his room, or even going on the trip anymore. He lost all reason to get up. (Am I really enough for them? I couldn't even solve Kinaki's project problem, broken friendships, especially Alex declining his gift. He gets flashes of the past. He thought, maybe he should meet an old friend, and be with him for the rest of his life, no one will ever see him again, and they'll be happy without him, and he'll have his best friend in the world along his side.

So Remoral visits a place, over and over, and everytime he refuses to leave his family behind until one day.

David decided to visit, and he saw Remoral, shoes off, gazing upon the city,, and his hair untied. When he climbed up, David ran up to him, and stopped Remoral.

Aha moment: In a dream, he remembered Moonlight's words, And David repeated them to him,

(You're the best, my bestie!)

Kinaki's suspicion led him to follow Remoral, and witnessed everything too.. Kinaki came running and hugged his new big brother, who he got attached to,

Recovery: Remoral found a new reason to keep going, not because of Alex, but for his entire family, and friends. David and Remoral's friendship got fixed, and now the voices have disappeared. The therapist however, said that Alexander's condition got worse. With a reason, and knowing which signs to look out for Alex, and David getting a grasp of information on what's happening within the house, he immediately knows what this is.

Climactic confrontation: Kinaki and Remoral confronted Alex one more time, and apologized to each other, and they even found out that he's wearing the bracelet that Remoral gave him (It was Aquarius who apologized, and at the same time Alex)

Victory: They won, and now they lived happily ever after, although Alex's anger could use some work, and David never continued the rivalry, knowing that it would only end up causing Remoral harm. David confronted the problem to Alex and they decided to be friends

Resolution: After the trip, Remoral was all freshened up, and the new years were great! But alas school started, this time however, Alex and David were friends, Kinaki being a new student, and Remoral in peace with himself. Along with Stella who jokingly made a fanfiction about Alex and David, She told them that she was never wrong about fanfiction

(But not everything is fixed)
